VHH Foundation Hosts 'House Call' at Toffel Residence

(GLENDALE, CA – November 10, 2009) – The evening of Thursday, November 5 shone brightly as Verdugo Hills Hospital (VHH) made a housecall at the La Canada home of Dr. Paul and Beverly Toffel. Hosted by the VHH Foundation Board of Directors under the leadership of Bill Baribault, new friends of VHH co-mingled with physicians and leadership in the splendor and hospitality of the Toffel estate - named as the 2008 Pasadena Showcase House of Design. With tapas-style hors d'oeuvres provided by Spot catering accompanied with sangria and wine, 100 guests enjoyed hearing from Dr. Toffel about his passion for the hospital and from President and CEO Len LaBella of some highlights of VHH's current successes both in technology and medical excellence in addition to glimpses of the hospital's future vision.

About the Hospital:

Verdugo Hills Hospital is a 158-bed nonprofit primary care facility nestled in the foothills between Glendale and La Cañada Flintridge. Hospital features include Fast-Track emergency services, comprehensive inpatient and outpatient diagnostic and treatment facilities, and a family birthing center. The Hospital also offers surgical services, including bariatric and orthopedic surgeries. It is the only independent, free-standing hospital in the greater Foothills community and was voted "Foothills' Best Hospital" by readers of the Glendale News-Press for five consecutive years. For more information, please visit www.vhhospital.org. For more information about funding initiatives or to support the hospital, please call the Foundation at 818.952.2226.
